Thursday, March 27. 1707.

From the Par. Gaz. Mar. 29. and Amst. Gaz. Apr. 1.

Rome, Mar. 12.

THE 16th of last Month, Cardinal Priuli, with the Consent of the Pope, went in the Night and without Ceremony, to visit the Ambassadour of Venice; and the other Venetian Cardinals, who because of the Difficulties form'd touching the new Ceremonial have not given the same Mark of their Respect for the Minister of their Republick, being at Liberty to do it at present, tis not doubted that Contest [of which an Account was given in some of our former] will soon be terminated. The 21st of the same Month the Pope declar'd in a Consistory, that he was determin'd not to issue a Brief to empower Cardinal Cornaro to accept by a Proxy the Title of Cardinal of St. Mark vacant by the Death of Cardinal Rubini, but would only give him Time sufficient to come to Rome to accept it in Person. The Carnaval is pass'd without any publick Diversions; and some Persons who contrary to the Pope's Prohibition made jovial Entertainments in their own Houses, are imprison'd. The 6th Instant at Night a Detachment of 76 Soldiers of the Pope's Guards, were posted in the Quarter of Longara, about the Palace in which Cardinal Grimani has his Residence. 'Tis said this is occasion'd by some Disorders that happen'd some Days ago; when several Sbirri were us'd very roughly by some Persons that retir'd into that Quarter; and that the Government have us'd this Precaution to prevent further Consequences. Cardinal Grimani complains loudly against this Innovation, and has dispatch'd a Courier with an Account of it to the Court of Vienna. Cardinal Paolucci has sent another thither, to justify this Proceeding, as being absolutely necessary for preventing new Disorders. This Affair makes a great Noise, and 'tis said his Eminency designs to leave the said Palace, and lodge either in that belonging to the Duke of Modena, or that of the Duke Gaetano. 'Tis reported M. Vidman will be sent to the Court of France, with the blessed Swadling-Cloaths for the Duke of Britany. The Abbot Riviera is not yet return'd hither; which makes it conjectur'd some new Difficulties have risen, that have retarded the Imperialists Evacuation of the Ferrareze.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 1.

Rome, March 12. On Sunday the 6th Instant the sacred College of Cardinals went in a Body to the principal Church of the Jesuites, to hear Mass, and adore the Host, which was expos'd there with the usual Ceremonies. In the Afternoon the Pope sent for all the Ecclesiasticks secular and regular that are to preach in this City during the Time of Lent; and made a patherick Discourse to them about their Duty. The next Day the sacred College celebrated the Festival of St. Thomas Aquinas. The same Day the Government caus'd a Guard of 200 Soldiers to be plac'd in the Quarter of Longara, where they still continue; under Pretence of preventing the Disorders that might be occasion'd by the famous Scarpalaggio and several other Neapolitan Malecontents, who have put themselves under the Protection of the Emperour, and taken Sanctuary in the Palace of Cardinal Grimani his Minister. Wednesday last being the first Day of Lent, the Pope went to the Church of St. Sabina, where he perform'd the Ceremony of blessing Ashes and distributing them to a mix'd Multitude of every Age Sex and Condition. Yesterday he was present at a Sermon preach'd in the Chappel of the Vatican; but did not go to St. Peter's Church as he design'd, because his Physicians represented to him, that it would fatigue him too much, and increase the Swelling in his Legs. The Viceroy of Naples has sent a circular Letter to all the Bishops of that Kingdom, to exhort them to make him each a free Gift towards the Charge of maintaining Forces for the Defence of the said Kingdom: But this being a Violation of the Immunities of the Church, and an Invasion of the Authority of the Pope, he has sent them Order to have no Regard on this Occasion to the Viceroy.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 2:

Bologna, March 13. On Saturday the 12th Instant the Legate here receiv'd Advice by a Courier from Rome, that the Pope had approv'd the Agreement made between the Abbot Riviera and Prince Eugene of Savoy touching the Contributions to be paid by the Ecclesiastical State. The next Morning at 3 a Clock an Express arriv'd with Letters for the Legates of this Province and that of Ferrara, importing, that the 20th Instant the Imperialists would draw together at Lago Scuro in the Ferrareze, and march out of the Territories of the Church. This Morning a Courier from Prince Eugene pass'd through this Place for Rome, to carry the News to Cardinal Grimani that the French are all to retire out of Lombardy.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Apr. 1.

Some Advices from Dresden, say King Stanislaus had laid in Ambush 7 or 800 Men of his Troops, to seize and carry off King Augustus on a certain Day that he had appointed to hunt at Mauritsbourg; but that his Design was discover'd in Time, and consequently frustrated. That the King of Sweden insist'd peremptorily on General Patkul's being deliver'd up to him; but that King Augustus excus'd himself from delivering him, and was seconded by several Ministers, who alledg'd it would be violating their known Rights, because the said General had the Character of Envoy of the Czar of Muscovy when he was made Prisoner.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Apr. 1.

Paris, Mar. 25. All the Talk here is of Peace, and of a speedy Suspension of Arms in Order to treat of it; and some will have the Agreement newly concluded for the Evacuation of the Places possess'd by our Troops in Italy, to be the Prelude of a general Peace. The last Letters from the Court tell us the King has made some new Proposals to the Allies, so much to their Advantage that 'tis believ'd they will not reject them: In particular, they say the Article relating to Spain and the Indies is as good as settled; but that the Allies demanded two things which the King cannot yet bring himself to grant, namely the Demolishing of Dunkirk and its Harbour, and the restoring of Strasbourg and all Alsace. The last Letters from Dauphine, say the Marshal de Thesse has caus'd a Line to be drawn, by Means of which he pretends to defend Suza and all Dauphine from from the Attempts of the Duke of Savoy; and that he has sent Order to all the Communities of Savoy, to furnish as many Pioneers as they can possibly, to work upon that Line.
